Dawn French

Dawn French is an actress/writer who was born on 11 October 1957 and attended school/grew up in her home-town Plymouth.

She is known for her creativity, comedic writing and acting, receiving multiple BAFTA nominations, and winning a BAFTA fellowship award. Most notably her role and writing on the famous show Vicar of Dibley.

Jack Leslie

John Francis Leslie (17 August 1901 – 25 November 1988) was an English professional footballer.

Leslie was the only black professional player in England during his time with Plymouth Argyle.

Leslie was invited to play for England; however, this was withdrawn due to the colour of his skin. In the face of this, Jack displayed            and in the face of adversity Leslie went on to enjoy 14 seasons at Plymouth Argyle

Steven Barlett

Steven Bartlett was born on 26 August 1992 in Botswana to an English father and a Nigerian mother. His mother left school at age seven and could not read or write; his father is a structural engineer.

Steven moved with his family to Plymouth, England, at the age of two.

Steven displayed high levels of ambition to become a high-profile British entrepreneur and podcaster. In 2021, he began appearing as an investor on the BBC One show Dragons' Den. He also runs The Diary of a CEO podcast. Spotify Wrapped ranked it in the top 10 most popular podcasts globally in 2023.

Katie Nesbitt

Kate Louise Nesbitt born 21 April 1988 is a pharmacy technician in the Royal Navy from Plymouth.

Nesbitt was the first female member of the Royal Navy, and the second woman in the British Armed Forces, to be awarded the Military Cross. The award was a result of her actions in Afghanistan in March 2009.

At 21 years old Katie dashed across 75-yards of open land to reach the stricken soldier as bullets ripped up the ground around her. Pinned down by upwards of 150 Taliban fighters, she pressed her fingers against the soldier's neck to stop him bleeding to death.

Lewis Pugh

Lewis William Gordon Pugh born in Plymouth on the 5th of December 1969. He is a British-South African endurance swimmer and ocean advocate. He is the first person to complete a long-distance swim in every ocean of the world, and he frequently swims in vulnerable ecosystems to draw attention to their plight.

Pugh is known for undertaking the first swim across the North Pole in 2007 with the aim of highlighting the melting of the Arctic sea ice.

In 2010 he swam across a glacial lake on Mount Everest; to draw attention to the melting of the glaciers in the Himalaya.

In 2018 he swam the full length of the English Channel to call for 30% of the world's oceans to be protected by 2030.

Jacquetta Marshall

Jacquetta Marshall OBE born on the 7th of November 1878 – 28 December 1961 was the first female Lord Mayor of Plymouth in 1950–51.

A gold medal in Marshall's name was awarded annually from 1951 to the most outstanding nurse at the Freedom Fields section of the South Devon and East Cornwall Hospital, Plymouth in acknowledgement of the difficulties of being the first woman to hold any particular office.

Tom Daley

Thomas Robert Daley OBE is a retired Olympic diver and was born in Plymouth on the 21st of May.

Daley started diving at the age of seven and is a member of Plymouth Diving Club, where his talent was identified early, and made an impact in national and international competitions from age nine. He represented Great Britain at the 2008 Summer Olympics where he was Britain's youngest competitor, age fourteen, and the youngest from any nation to participate in a final.

He won gold in 2020 Olympics in the men's synchronized 10-metre platform event and double champion world champion.
